

Pima County Juvenile Court
Domestic Violence/Education Committee
Minutes
March 27, 2012

Call to Order: 12:15 pm

Attendees:

Rebecca Manoleas, John Jackson, Carey Turner, Geri Yrigolla, Anizza Scott, Susan Towne, Toni Marongelli, Tamara Sargus, Lisa Abrams

- I. Introductions: Introductions were made by all.

- II. Old Business: John Jackson reiterated what had been stated by Judge Adam. The committees were put together purposely. We may consult with others i.e. specific professionals; however there is no need to add members to the committee at this time.

- III. Logic model:

The committee members were given a draft of the logic model created by the co-chairs.

Statement of the Problem and Assumptions about the Change Strategy were modify slightly.

Activities generated the most discussion and lead to more questions about the focus of the committee.

It was agreed that the committee needs to agree as to what is domestic violence and what is considered exposure.

There was discussion as to what the definition of domestic violence is and how different system players will use varied terms.

It was suggested that the definitions need to fit in with the statute.

It was suggested that there are specifics as to what type of relationship i.e. married, single, dating etc.

For tracking and data purposes it is better to be specific.

- IV. Next Steps:

John and Rebecca will recommend that the Co-Chairs. It was agreed that it would be helpful to know how the other committees are tackling the issues. It also may be helpful to receive clarifications and focus on the committee's approach.

The next meeting is April 24th at the Training Center
